The Assignor agrees and stipulates that this assignment carries with it the right to the insurance for this deposit as insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. This assignment shall be given to the Department under the provisions of Article 3.5, Section 221.00 et seq., of Title 13, Division 1, Chapter 1 of the California Code of Regulations, and shall be binding on the Assignor, his/her/their heirs, successors, administrators, and is assigned jointly and severally.

The Assignor hereby acknowledges that the amount assigned to the Department is insured only up to $100,000. The Assignor also acknowledges that the decision to become self-insured and assign a deposit to the Department is entirely voluntary and not required by law. The Assignor further acknowledges and understands that neither the California Department of Motor Vehicles nor the State of California assumes liability for the deposit in excess of the amount insured under state or federal law.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
